Brian W. Thompson

Director

Overview

Organizations and individuals need an attorney who understands their needs and concerns and who can guide them through their real estate transactional or legal matters. With nearly 15 years of experience representing companies, individuals, and organizations, Mr. Thompson is that attorney. Brian concentrates his practice on title and contractual issues, with an emphasis on litigation matters in Maryland and Washington, D.C. He is a co-chair in the Real Estate Practice Group and a director in the Trust and Estates Practice Group. He also serves as Chair of the Firm's Marketing/Social Media Committee.

Brian has represented companies, individuals, real estate agents, and real estate settlement companies in numerous litigation matters in Maryland and Washington, D.C., including appellate matters. He has served as lead counsel in real estate litigation cases before the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, the District of Columbia Court of Appeals, the Superior Court of the District of Columbia, the Maryland Court of Special Appeals, and various trial courts in the State of Maryland. Additionally, Brian remains active in transactional matters, including counseling companies and individuals in transactions involving the District of Columbia Tenant Opportunity to Purchase Act and development.

Before joining Jackson & Campbell, P.C., Brian spent nine years at a practice in which he devoted a significant amount of time to real estate closings and the resolution of title issues.

Brian currently serves as the President of the DC Land Title Association, for which he has been a board member since 2014. Prior to becoming President, he served as the Association's Treasurer and President-Elect. Additionally, Brian served as an elected member and former co-chair of the Real Estate, Housing, and Land Use Community of The District of Columbia Bar.
